Appeal for Vendor/Advertisement for NAINA Newsletter and Website

Dear Sponsor/ Vendors/ NAINA supporters,

The National Association of Indian Nurses of America (NAINA) is a not-for-profit organization under the rules and regulations of non-profit organization 501(c)3 in the country of United States of America.

The International council declared 2020 as the year of the nurse, which has been currently extended to 2021. Nurses have continued to be the frontline heroes serving our country. NAINA nurses have excelled to serve with diligence in 22 chapter across 15 states during this pandemic.

The editorial and communication committee are working together to publish our newsletter for this quarter. This newsletter will give opportunities for our members to share their stories as nurses and chapters to share their achievements and community activities in their own states. You can showcase your business as an advertisement in the newsletter.

NAINA website serves as a virtual office for all the governing board members and the entire membership. We are looking forward to enhancing our communication through the website and various application. Your generous support will help us do this.

Please find the different sponsor rates available for the newsletter and the website. We would like to thank you in advance for your generous support.
